W. VIRGINIA LABOR WAR CARRIED TO COURT

3 PEACE PACTS ARE APPROVED; U. S. TROOPS TO BE WITHDRAWN

Treaties, With OK of Foreign Relations Committee, to Be Called Today

2 RESERVATIONS ADDED

Act of Congress Required to Permit Participation in Any Foreign Meeting

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23. — The treaties of peace negotiated by the administration with Germany, Austria and Hungary were approved today by the senate foreign relations committee, but with two reservations. One reservation—similar to a Lodge reservation to the treaty of Versailles—would require an act of congress prior to representation or participation in any foreign agencies or commissions by an American representative whose nomination would have to be confirmed by the senate. The other is designed to protect the property rights of American citizens as well as of the American government in the three former enemy countries.

Adoption of the two reservations brought from the White House the statement that while President Harding had not seen their text, he favored the principles involved and no objection would be reached by the administration to ratification with the proposed reservation attached.

Borah Alone Opposed
Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, a leader of the "irreconcilables" in the treaty of Versailles ratification fight, alone of the foreign relations committee members stood out against the recommendation that the three treaties be ratified with the proposed reservations. Democratic committee members joined with the other Republicans in ordering the pact reported favorably to the senate where they were presented late today by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican leader and committee chairman.

The treaties, Senator Lodge announced, are to be called before the senate tomorrow when he plans to make a preferential motion for their discussion ahead of all other business. It is proposed, however, to give right of way next week to the tax bill and to have night sessions, beginning probably next Tuesday, in an effort to hasten ratification.

Committee discussion of the treaties today developed that the administration plans to begin withdrawal of American troops from Germany immediately after ratification. Senator Lodge told the committee he had been so advised by Secretary Hughes adding that the American forces would be "greatly reduced" after ratification, but when complete evacuation would be accomplished was undetermined. It was indicated during the discussion that a small body for American representation might remain indefinitely on the Rhine.

Johnson Satisfied
The committee's decision to report the treaties brought a schism in the ranks of the "irreconcilables" in the Versailles treaty fight. Senator Johnson, Republican, California, who was associated prominently with Senator Borah in opposition to the Versailles treaty, today voted for ratification with the reservations. Another "irreconcilable," Senator Shields, Democrat, Tennessee, also supported the treaties today.

Sensor Borah indicated he would continue his opposition to the last (CONTINUED ON PAGE FIVE)

SENATE AGAIN FAILS TO GET FINAL VOTE ON ANTI-BEER BILL

Adjourns, After Continuous 8 Hour Session Featured by Address of Kentuckian

PLEADS FOR LIBERTIES

Senator Stanley Urges That Privacy of Home be Put Ahead of "Morals"

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23. — The senate after a continuous session of nearly eight hours, adjourned tonight with the prospect that further consideration of the anti-beer bill would go over for several weeks. Opponents of the measure, in the fact of a night session forced by dry leaders, were successful in their obstructive tactics. Senator Sterling, Republican, South Dakota, in charge of the measure, finally moving an adjournment.

Notwithstanding the setback, supporters of the anti-beer bill plan to make another effort to call it up tomorrow but the peace treaties are to be brought up and it was the expectation tonight that consideration of them would be begun. The tax revision bill will be taken up Monday.

Senator Stanley of Kentucky, in a six-hour address, declared that a similar contest was waged 160 years ago which lighted the spark of the revolution and gave birth to the republic. "Advocates of the pending bill," he said, "think the morals of the community are worth more than the liberties of the people."

"Search of homes for evidence," he added, "was worse than the Spanish inquisition."

"I would not be surprised," Senator Stanley said at this point, "to see the ardent advocates of this measure calling attention to the fact—and it is true—that Washington, the distiller Franklin, the brewer, and Patrick Henry, a barkeeper, or their friends, were nefariously smuggling contraband liquor into Boston. They were violating the law, there is no question about it. It was generally violated."

Senator Watson, Democrat, Georgia interjected that during the recess of congress, murder and other outrages had been committed in his state by prohibition enforcement agents. He recited several alleged cases, among them a raid upon a Methodist camp meeting where automobiles and other places were searched for liquor.

PROMINENT AMERICANS ENJOY MEXICAN VISIT

Gerard, former United States ambassador to Germany, and a party of friends left on a special train for Laredo last night, following a visit of ten days in Mexico City. ### Pershing Is Given Highest Honors On Visit To Millerand

Precedent Established When American Auto Rolls in Front of Old Palace

PARIS, Sept. 23. —(By the Associated Press.) — Ambassadorial honors were accorded General Pershing today when he was received at Elysee Palace by President Millerand. After the general was saluted by the guard at the palace, the president welcomed him in the name of France, voicing the country's gratitude for the part he had taken in the war. General Pershing expressed pleasure at being able to return to France.

A precedent was established when the general's party arrived in Ambassador Herrick's automobile—the first time Elysee Palace has seen any thing except the traditional horse drawn Victorias which are used on state occasions.

General Pershing will interrupt his formal program on Sunday and slip quietly out of Paris for Chaumont, his headquarters during the war. Accompanied only by his aide, Major John G. Quekemyer and two orderlies, the general will motor to Chaumont early Sunday morning and spend the night in the old chateau which he used as office and residence in 1917 and 1918.

CHICAGO DEFENDS SUIT FOR LIBEL

Counsel For City, Replying To Arguments of Tribune, Asks That Case Be Tried

CHICAGO, Sept. 23. — Disclaiming any intention to attempt suppression of the Chicago Tribune and declaring that the city administration of Chicago had stood for free speech when it was dangerous to do so, Chester E. Cleveland, special counsel for the city today began his answer to the arguments by which counsel for the Chicago Tribune sought to have thrown out of court the city's $10,000,000 libel suit against that paper.

Earlier in the day, Weymouth Kirkland, of counsel for the Tribune, had ended an eight hours argument in which he asserted that a city had no right to sue for libel, that to grant it such right would jeopardize liberty of expression and be against public policy.

Cleveland began his answer by asserting that the opposing counsel had interjected much material that did not properly belong in an argument on a demurrer. He said that the only question before the court was whether the city was entitled to recover any damages and that it would be the province of the trial judge and jury to determine whether the full $10,000,000 could be assessed or only part of it.

"This suit," said Cleveland, "is not by nor behind any political organization, but is by the City of Chicago and its 3,000,000 citizens. They are not asking the suppression of any publication of truth, fair comment or criticism. But they maintain that this defendant newspaper should not have the right deliberately, falsely and maliciously to tell lies."

Neil, and John Shearman would be tried in the federal court under an indictment charging resisting with firearms a federal officer in discharge of his duty. The men are at liberty under $10,000 bond. The district attorney said the acquittal in the state court of the men on the charge of killing Prohibition Officer C. Arch Wood would have no bearing on the federal case.

AL SEMNACHER GIVES VERSION WILD PARTY IN FATTY'S SUITE

Former Manager For Virginia Rappe Star Witness at Preliminary Trial

Women Again Take Over Every Seat in Courtroom To Hear Testimony

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23. — Alfred Semnacher's version of the drinking party in Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle's hotel suite here which preceded the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, was heard today in the police court examination of Arbuckle on a murder charge. His testimony will be resumed tomorrow.

Semnacher was manager of Miss Rappe in her moving picture days and drove her and Mrs. Bambina Delmont, the complaining witness, in an automobile to San Francisco from Los Angeles just before the affair occurred.

His story was of a party at the hotel St. Francis in which nearly a dozen men and women participated, where Arbuckle and Lowell Sherman, another moving picture actor, were garbed in pajamas, bath robes and slippers, while Mrs. Delmont danced about the room in pajamas.

During the course of the afternoon, he said, two of the women entered one of the rooms of the suite adjoining that where the drinking and dancing was going on, and returned in excitement with the news that Miss Rappe was ill.

"I am dying, I am dying," were the words Semnacher said he heard Miss Rappe utter as the group found her on a bed, unclothed, moaning and tossing from side to side.

Various means of restoring the girl to consciousness were suggested, according to the witness, one of the women suggesting ice, but the men retired from the room and three of the women put her in a bath tub. A glass of water given Miss Rappe caused her to become sick at her stomach, Semnacher said.

Then some one whom Semnacher said he could not identify carried her to a room down the corridor provided by the assistant manager of the hotel, Harry J. Boyle, who had been summoned meanwhile.

Semnacher told of gathering up Miss Rappe's garments which, he said, were strewn around the room, leaving all of them in the room to which she had been removed except two torn ones, which he put in the pocket of his automobile.

His purpose, he testified, was first, to exhibit them jokingly to Miss Rappe, and secondly, to dust off his machine with them. He took them back to Los Angeles and turned them over to the police there after Arbuckle's arrest.

Arbuckle Smiles Once
Gathering up his belongings at another hotel, Semnacher said, he brought them to the St. Francis, where he joined Arbuckle and the rest of the party, except Miss Rappe, at supper in Arbuckle's suite. Afterwards, according to Semnacher, Arbuckle (CONTINUED ON PAGE FOUR)

NEW YORK GIRL IS WOUNDED BY CHUM; LATTER THEN SUICIDES

Daughter of Wealthy Eastern Shoe Manufacturer Hovers Between Life and Death

MOTIVE UNDISCOVERED

Police Investigation Fails as Yet to Bring Out Reason For Society Tragedy

NEW YORK, Sept. 23. — Shot and wounded three times by her former chum, who then ended her life with a bullet, Miss Mildred E. Hanan, daughter of the late Alfred P. Hanan, shoe manufacturer, tonight hovered between life and death in a Brooklyn hospital. With the outcome of the girl's injuries still in doubt, police took up a back trail from the scene of the nocturnal tragedy into the world of "high life" blamed by Miss Hanan's assailant, Mrs. Grace Lewis, for the accumulated misery and heart ache which impelled her to take her friend's life.

"The pace is too fast and the liquor has driven me crazy," she had written in a letter addressed to her mother.

Question Man in Case
Still another possible motive for the deed, that of jealous rage over the attentions of a man who was with Miss Hanan when the shooting occurred, is being scrutinized by detectives who are trying to clear up many unexplained points.

For more than three hours, this man, John S. Borland, importer and exporter, was questioned regarding details of the affair as well as the circumstances of his acquaintance with the two women.

A further complication developed when San Francisco newspaper men reported they had located and questioned Mrs. M. E. Dittmar, to whom, calling her "mother darling," Mrs. Lawes had addressed a letter found among her effects.

Mrs. Dittmar at first denied any relationship and then told her questioners she was a sister of the dead woman and volunteered the information that jealousy was not the motive of the killing.

This information was at variance with the salutation of the "mother darling" letter, and the contents of another, addressed to Miss Birdie Williams, a former nurse in the Hanan household, of which Mrs. Lawes had also been a member for four years.

Describes Tragedy
"Make it easy for my darling mother," Mrs. Lawes had written in the second letter, which began with a request that her body be sent home to California to be cremated.

The stories of the tragedy and the events preceding it told by the injured girl and Borland, a Dartmouth graduate, coincided closely. With Miss Dorothy Gottschalk, Miss Hanan told detectives, she and Borland had dined at her own home in one of the most exclusive residential districts of Manhattan.

At 11 last night, she said, she and Borland drove Miss Gottschalk to her home in Schermerhorn street, Brooklyn, where they stayed until shortly after 1 o'clock.

"We had just emerged from the vestibule when I saw Mrs. Lawes step from an arwayway," Miss Hanan (CONTINUED ON PAGE FOUR)

LIQUOR CAUSES YOUTH'S DEATH

Jerome Boy, Patient in Hospital, Dies When Friend Smuggles in Drink

PRESCOTT, Ariz., Sept. 23. — Officers tonight were seeking some unknown person who is alleged to have smuggled a flask of liquor to William Andrew Hudson, 20-year-old Jerome boy, a drink of which is said to have caused the boy's death, according to reports received here.

Young Hudson was in a Jerome hospital convalescing from pleurisy, the reports said, and was being kept under heart depressants by hospital surgeons. He received a number of visitors, one of whom is said to have taken him a six ounce bottle of liquor.

From American military posts every where in the world minute guns of mourning will sound from sunrise until after the burial ceremonies in Washington.
